Dear Parent/Carer

Re: Singing and Instrumental Lessons

Frome College has a team of self-employed peripatetic teachers that come in weekly to deliver expert singing and instrumental lessons. Many of the teachers have taught here for a number of years and have a wealth of experience in supporting students' musical development. Learning an instrument can be a very rewarding thing to do. Not only are there obvious benefits to musicality, the evidence suggests that people who play regularly can improve their cognitive functions, fine motor skills, team skills and emotional intelligence.

Payments and contracts will go directly between the instrumental/singing teacher and parent. Therefore, if you want to sign your child up for lessons, or want to find out about the potential of an initial free taster, please contact the teacher directly on the number/email provided. Please can you not delay and contact the teacher straight away so they can organise timetables and commence teaching as soon as possible in September.

Please note that this is my last year at Frome College so my email address below will cease to work from September. Please direct any enquires at that point to Mr Joshua Hampson, Subject Leader for Music.

Yours sincerely
